

British Association for Canadian Studies and Centre of Canadian Studies 50th Anniversary Conference

University of Edinburgh, 24-26 April 2025

Conference Programme

Thursday 24 April

14.30	Playfair Library Hall, Old College	Registration desk
16.00		Doors open
16.30	Playfair Library Hall, Old College	Welcome Followed by Plenary Keynote 1 Debra Thompson, Canada Research Chair in Racial Inequality in Democratic Societies, McGill University.
18.00-19.00		Post-lecture drinks reception

Friday 25 April – Chrystal Macmillan Building (CMB)

08.30-09.00	CMB Foyer	Registration
09.00-10.30	Seminar Room 4	Session 1.1 Indigeneity 1: Global and Historical Arenas Marie-Pierre Bousquet, Université de Montréal, 'More than Tartans, Fiddles and

Bannock: Why Canadian Indigenous People are Interested in their Scottish Ancestry'

Faith Decontie, University of Aberdeen, 'Recalibrating Colonial Pain: Reflection on Indigenous Canadian and United Kingdom Relations'

Robert C. Thomsen, Aalborg University, 'Indigeneity and other collective identities at the Arctic Winter Games'

09.00-10.30 Seminar
Room 5

Session 1.2 Multiculturalism 1: Race and Immigration

Mary Fowke, University of Lisbon, 'Ways of Remembering: Contrasting Experiences of Displacement in Canadian Immigrant and Emigrant Memoirs'

Eyitayo Aloh, Trent University, 'Unmasking the Polite Racist: Humour, Resistance and Black African immigrants in Canada'

Karine Coen-Sanchez, University of Ottawa, 'Navigating Identity and Policy: the Afro-Caribbean Experience in Canada'

09.00-10.30 Seminar
Room 6

Session 1.3 Literature 1: (Re)Imagining Identity and Belonging

Lindsay Thistle, Trent University, 'A Mirror and a Memory: Exploring Meaning and Identity in Canadian WWII Plays, 1945-1975'

Janne Korkka, University of Turku, 'Unstable Spaces in Canadian Writing'

Maximillian Rhys, Technical University of Liberec, 'Real and Imagined Communities in Canadian Novels from the 1940s to the 1970s'

Linda Morra, Bishop's University, Rethinking Citizenship: Jane Rule's 'Lesbian Image' and Categories of Belonging

09.00-10.30	Violet Laidlaw Room	Session 1.4 UK-Canada Relations 1: Historical and Cultural
		Anne MacLennan and Antara Dey, York University, 'A Moveable Feast: Invisible Cultural Heritage and Scottish Food Identities in Canada'
		Colin Coates and Stéphane Castonguay, York University and Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières, 'Message in a bottle... in a cheese: Establishing links in the Canadian cheese trade with the United Kingdom, 1880-1914'
		Matthew Hayday, University of Guelph, 'Canada, the UK and the Commonwealth in the late 20th Century: Researching Canada Through a British Lens'
		Jaroslav Valkoun, Charles University, 'The King-Byng Affair and Its Significance for British-Canadian Relations, 1926'
09.00-10.30	Practice Suite	Session 1.5 Québec and French Canada 1: Language and Mobilisation
		Yulia Bosworth, Binghamton, SUNY, 'Nous voulons un pays: Discourse on identity, nationhood in PQ Instagram posts'
		François Vaillancourt, Université de Montréal, 'Language Policy in Canada and Québec in the 2020+ period'
		Alexandre Turgeon, Université Laval, 'The Future of the Quiet Revolution'
		Md Nazmul Arefin, University of Alberta, 'Just Watch Me' A Biopolitical Retrospection on State Control, Terrorism Framing, and Human Rights in Québec's FLQ Crisis'
10.30-11.00	CMB Foyer	Refreshment break

11.00-12.30

Session 2.1 Indigeneity 2: Indigenous Governance and Colonial Politics in the 19th Century

Brian Gettler, University of Toronto, 'Peregrine Maitland and the Origins of the Indian Fund'

Isabelle Bouchard, Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières, 'First Nations Governance in Colonial Context: the Uses of Official Notarial Writing by the Abenaki in the 19th Century'

Alain Beaulieu and Stéphanie Béreau, Université du Québec à Montréal and Professional History Consultant, 'Identity and Power among the Indigenous Peoples of the Saint Lawrence Valley in the 19th Century: The Case of the Gill family in Odanak'

Mathieu Arsenault, Université de Montréal, 'Indigenous Politicians in the Canadian Capital and the Implementation of Regulations to prohibit them from visiting the Seat of Government, 1840-1852'

11.00-12.30

Session 2.2 Multiculturalism 2: Mechanisms of White Supremacy: Media, Migration and Multicultural Myth-Making

Angela Stigliano, York University, 'Modern Homesteading, Natural Living and the Far Right'

Annala Bose, York University, '(Un)Welcome to Canada's Future: White Supremacy, Migrant Resistance and Changes to Canadian Immigration Policy'

Aaliyah Khan and Fizza Mir, York University, 'The Violence of Multiculturalism: Producing Canada through Carceral Violence, Anti-Palestinian Racism and Islamophobic Media'

11.00-12.30

Session 2.3 Literature 2: Past, Present, Future Fiction

Isabelle Fournier, Trent University, 'Resilience and Hope in Annie Bacon's Chroniques Post-Apocalyptiques'

Kait Pinder, Acadia University, 'History's 'Vibe' in Sarah Bernstein's Study for Obedience'

Sylwia Borowska-Szerszun, University of Bialystok, 'Seeking Meaning in the Medieval Past: Religious and Ethnic Diversity in Guy Gavriel Kay's Historical Fantasy fiction'

Pauline Montassine, Université de Reims Champagne-Ardenne, "'We've Been Here Before': Mapping Timescapes in Margaret Atwood's Paper Boat (2024)'

Andrea Beverley, Mount Allison University, 'Archival Collage and Elizabeth Brewster'

11.00-12.30

Session 2.4 Book Panel 1

The Québec-United States Relationship: Political, Security, Economic, Environment and Cultural Dynamics, Palgrave Macmillan, 2025

Authors: Frédérick Gagnon (Université du Québec à Montréal) and Christopher Kirkey (SUNY, Plattsburgh)

11.00-12.30

Session 2.5 Locating Labour and Social Class

Daniyal Zuberi, University of Toronto, 'Addressing Youth Poverty in the Peel Region, ON'

Léonard Bédard and Scott Richardson, Queen's University, 'Labouring Under Illusions: How Canada's Temporary Worker Programme Exploits and Restricts the Social Mobility of Economic Migrants'

Robert Wardhaugh and James Flath, Western University, 'Fielding: The Rise and Demise of a Saskatchewan Small Town'

John Belshaw, Thompson Rivers University,
“The Spinster and the Spokesman:’ What the Killing of Rachel Shannon reveals about early
Vancouver’s elite’

12.25-13.15 CMB Foyer Lunch

13.15-14.15 Meadows Keynote:
Lecture Michael Keating, Emeritus Professor of Theatre Politics, University of Aberdeen, and Honorary Professor, University of Edinburgh

14.30-16.00 Session 3.1 Indigeneity 3: Cultural Articulations and Knowledge Practices

Heather Devine, University of Calgary, ‘Digital Family Roots: Genealogical Research and Canada’s Indigenous Identities’

Aafiyah Shaikh, University of Edinburgh,
‘Museums as Sites of Reconciliation:
Imperialism, Soft Power and the Rematriation of Artefacts’

Lisa Binkley, Dalhousie University, ‘The Flower Beadwork People: The Evolution of Métis Embroidery and Beadwork’

Monty Montgomery and Margaret Kovach,
University of British Columbia, ‘Indigenous Epistemic Space in 21st Century Canadian Society?’

14.30-16.00 Session 3.2 Multiculturalism 3: European Settlers

Kristín M. Jóhannsdóttir, University of Akureyri, ‘The Linguistic Landscape of Gimli,
Manitoba’

Dagmara Drewniak, Adam Mickiewicz
University, Poznań, ‘Photographs, Ghosts and Legacy Memoirs as Testimonies of Eastern
European Immigration to the Prairie
Provinces’

Venkovits Balázs, University of Debrecen,
'Exploring and Preserving the Heritage of Immigration: A Case Study of Montreal'

14.30-16.00

Session 3.3 Literature 3: Aesthetic Hybridities

Ian Rae, University of Western Ontario,
'Blackwood's in the Backwoods: Galt and Dunlop in an Unpublished Novel (c.1900) by Kathleen and Robina Lizars'

Cecilia Beecher Martins, University of Lisbon,
'Identity and Biotext: Looking at Fred Wah's
Diamond Grill and A Door to be Kicked'

Elina Valovirta, University of Turku, 'Finally
Free: Materialist Canadian and Caribbean
Seascapes in Shani Mootoo's He Down She in Sea'

Octavian More, Babeş-Bolyai University,
'"Troubled only by clarity of weather:"
perspectivism and spiritual experience in the poetry of Margaret Aviston and Christopher Dewdney'

14.30-16.00

Session 3.4 Book Panel 2

*Les mots de la nation. Au cœur du lexique de base de six communautés imaginées : États-
Unis, France, Angleterre, Écosse, Canada,
Québec*, Presses de l'Université de Montréal,
2025

Jocelyn Létourneau (Author) and Discussants, Michael Keating (Universities of Aberdeen and Edinburgh), Hugh Starkey (University College London).

14.30-16.00

Session 3.5 Climate Emergency Conversations

Alan MacEachern, Western University, 'Taking our Temperature: How Canadians Talk About the Weather'

Tracie Scott, Jyothsna Appiah Singh and Aishwarya Singhal, Heriott Watt University, Dubai, 'Much 'Ad'o about nothing: Legislating against greenwashing in Canada'

Joanna Robinson, York University, 'We are Skipping our Lessons to Teach you One': Intergenerational Conflict in the Canadian Climate Movement'

Ian Urquhart, University of Alberta, 'From Leader to Laggard: The Canadian Climate Change Story'

Jade Laflamme, Arielle Navette, Léonard Bédard, Université Laval, Université Laval and Queen's University, 'À chaque marais sa municipalité: Gouvernance locale et protection des milieux humides au Québec'

16.00-16.20

Refreshment break

16.20-17.50

Session 4.1 Indigeneity 4: Trauma and Rights

Gabriela Kwiatek and Ewelina Feldman-Kolodziejuk, Jagiellonian University, Krakow and University of Bialystok, 'Speaking the unspoken: Testimonies of Forced Sterilization in Sacred Bundles Unborn'

Brian Calliou, University of Calgary, 'Response by Canada's Legal Profession to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Call to Action'

Jeremy Patzer, University of Manitoba, 'Beyond the Supreme Court of Canada: Indigenous Rights in the 21st Century'

16.20-17.50

Session 4.2 Multiculturalism 4: A Century of Greek Canadian History and Memory in Toronto

Sekis Gekas, York University, 'Towards a Transnational History of Greeks in Toronto:'

the case of the 1918 anti-Greek riots and its various afterlives’

Angelo Laskaris, York University,
‘Remembering the 1940s: Greek Canadian Memory and Historical Awareness in the Present’

Alexandros Balasis, York University, ‘Elites of Migration: Greek Leadership in Toronto’s Diaspora’

16.20-17.50

Session 4.3 Literature 4: Literary Regions

Ceri Morgan, Keele University, ‘Regional chick lit: shaping l’Estrie’

Vanja Polić, University of Zagreb, ‘Marina Endicott’s The Little Shadows: a View of the Western Region from a Vaudeville Stage’

Aritha van Herk, University of Calgary, ‘Canada does not exist. Nevertheless, we yearn to be there’

16.20-17.50

Session 4.4 ‘Canadian’ Wine and Food

Marcel Martel, York University, ‘Promoting Canadian wine, 1860-1940’

Nicole Neatby, St Mary’s University, ‘Creating a ‘foody’ destination: How Québec cuisine was turned into a tourist attraction and a marker of national identity (1920-1967)’

Adrian Shubert, York University, ‘“The County’: the Making of a Wine Region in 21st Century Ontario’

16.20-17.50

Session 4.5 UK-Canada Relations 2: Promoting UK-Canada Relations: the Role of the British Consulates General

Patrick Holdich, University College London, and colleagues

Session 4.6 : Québec and French Canada 2 :
'Culture et citoyenneté Québécoise/Culture and Citizenship in Québec A curricular paradox'

Organizer: Joanne Pattison-Meek, Bishop's
University; Discussant: Hugh Starkey,
University College London

Denis Jeffrey, Université Laval, 'The Sociological Underpinnings of the New Culture and Citizenship Curriculum'

Raphaël Gani, Université Laval, 'The Dilemma(s) of Curricular Translation for Québec's Official Language Minority'

Joanne Pattison-Meek, Bishop's University,
'PhotoVoices from the Field: Supporting Understandings of Culture and Citizenship in Quebec in Rural, English High School
Classrooms'

18.00-18.45 Meadows
Lecture
Theatre

Plenary Roundtable: Whither Canadian Studies?

Stewart Gill, University of Melbourne,
'Something Still to Find': Why Canadian
Studies are still relevant'

Paul Keen, Carleton University, 'Still Sleeping
with the Elephant: Canadian Studies'
Unfinished Arguments'

Tony McCulloch, University College London
'Canadian Studies in the UK'

19.30 Playfair
Library,
Old
College

Conference dinner

Saturday 26 April

- 09.30-10.30 Meadows Lecture Theatre Plenary Keynote 3
Sarah Carter, H.M. Tory Chair and Professor of History, University of Alberta
- 10.30-11.00 Refreshment break
- 11.00-12.30 Session 5.1 Indigeneity 5: Health, Language, Politics

Antonia Maioni, McGill University, 'The development of Indigenous health systems in Canada and the US'

Tomasz Soroka, Jagiellonian, University, Krakow, 'Navigating Linguistic Diversity: Canada's Language Policies Towards Non-Official and Non-Indigenous Languages'

Cora Voyageur, University of Calgary, 'Leading the Nations: First Nation Chiefs in Canada'
- 11.00-12.30 Session 5.2 Multiculturalism 5: Attitudes toward Immigration: Belonging and Deservingness

Ailsa Henderson and Antoine Bilodeau, University of Edinburgh and Concordia University, 'The Terms of Belonging in Minority Nations: Markers of National Identity in Québec and Scotland and Attitudes toward Minority Groups'

Luc Turgeon, University of Ottawa, 'Immigration and the housing crisis: a comparison of Canada's English- and French-language press'

Antoine Bilodeau and Luc Turgeon, Concordia University and University of Ottawa, 'Attitudes toward immigrants in Québec: A look at territorial and generational variations'
- 11.00-12.30 Session 5.3 Literature 5: Indigenous Stories 1: Healing, Spectrality, Hauntings

Lucie Altmannová, Masaryk University, 'Traditional Healing as Decolonial Resistance in Tanya Tagaq's Split Tooth'

Cynthia Sugars, University of Ottawa, 'Unreconciled Monsters: Intergenerational Hauntings and Canadian Residential Schools in Armand Ruffo's Windigo Tale'

Diane Bélisle-Wolf, Universität Trier, 'Territory, art and identity in Natasha Kanapé's novel Nauetakun, un silence pour un bruit'

11.00-12.30

Session 5.4 Policy Transformations in Health, Sex and Gender 1

Christopher Dummitt, Trent University, 'Sixties Social Transformation from Unexpected Places: the Divorce Act of 1968'

Marie Moreau, Université Jean Moulin Lyon 3, 'Promoting Involved Fatherhood? Canadian Institutions and the journey forward towards a more gender-equal Canada'

Claire Mountford, Queen's University, 'How do Canadian Political Parties respond to allegations of sexual violence: To sanction or not to sanction?'

Holly Dickinson, Dalhousie University, 'Materializing Reproductive Justice: The Metro Family Planning Association and Women's Health Advocacy in Nova Scotia, 1969-1988'

Guilia Rovelli, Università degli Studi di Bergamo, 'Health, Prosperity, Intellectual Advancement. The Evolution of the Concept of Well-Being in Canada (1791-1920)'

11.00-12.30

Session 5.5 Governance and Political Institutions

Raymond Blake, University of Regina, 'It is all about Freedom: The Rhetoric of Canadian Prime Ministers Since Mackenzie King'

Gregory Marquis, University of New Brunswick and Saint John, 'The Past, Present and Future of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police'

Penny Bryden, University of Victoria, 'Political Scandal in Canada: Historical Insights for a Post-Scandal Age'

Tim Cook, Canadian War Museum, 'Renewing the Canadian War Museum'

12.30-13.30 CMB Foyer Lunch

13.00-13.30 Meadows
Lecture
Theatre BACS AGM

13.30-15.00 Session 6.1 Indigeneity 6: Developments and Responses 2: Encounters and Reconciliations

Patrick Holdich, University College London, 'Canadian Politics and Indigenous Issues: Where is Public Opinion?'

Kiera Ladner, University of Manitoba, 'Restoring Pluralism: Imagining a Way of Living Together'

Hannah Wylie, Concordia University, 'Examining Economic Reconciliation'

13.30-15.00 Session 6.2 Art, Stories and National Identity

John Bessai, Trent University, 'Art and Public Service: Shaping Canadian Identity through Visual Storytelling'

Joan Schwartz, Queen's University, 'Photography and the Art of Nation-Building'

Michael Follert, Saint Francis Xavier University, 'Grim Excitement' Listening to the North over CBC Radio, 1945-58'

Claire Smerdon, University of Edinburgh, 'Susannah of the Mounties: A Childhood Encounter with Residential Schools'

Anne MacLennan, York University, 'Competing Canadian Identities'

13.30-15.00 Session 6.3 Literature 6: Indigenous Stories 2: Land, Truth, Narrative

Fernando Pérez García, University of Oviedo, 'Should I be here? A Transmodern Reading of Black and Indigenous Relations with Land and Solidarity in Wayde Compton's The Lost Island'

Kamelia Talebian Sedehi, Mount Allison University and Spienza Università di Roma, 'Whose Truth Is It? A Reading of Vermett's Real Ones: A Novel'

May Wang, National Defense University, 'First Person Narration and Interpellation in Thomas King's Short Stories'

Session 6.4 Book Panel 3

Québec's Eastern Townships and the World: A Region and its Global Connections, McGill-Queen's University Press, 2025

Authors: Andrew Holman (Bridgewater State University) and Christopher Kirkey (SUNY, Plattsburgh)

13.30-15.00

Session 6.5 Policy Transformations in Health, Sex, and Gender 2: Complexities of Reproductive Rights: Immigrant and Indigenous Women Activists (1960s-1990s)

Annalee Lepp, University of Victoria, Chair and Commentator

Karissa Patton, University of Edinburgh, 'Expert or Interloper? Birth Control Centres in Alberta, 1969-1979'

Sarah Nickel, University of Alberta, 'Planned Parenthood and Indigenous Women's Reproductive Autonomy, 1970s-1980s'

Margaret Little, Queen's University, 'The Complexities of Reproductive Justice Politics for Immigrant Women Activists in Toronto, 1970s-1980s'

Cherene Ayian, Rutgers University and Lynne Marks, University of Victoria, 'The India Mahila Association's Campaign Against Sex Selection Clinics, Vancouver, 1993-1998'

15.00-15.30 CMB Foyer Refreshment break

15.30-17.00 Session 7.1 Indigeneity 7: Beothuk Ghosts

John Harries, University of Edinburgh, 'Banishing Beothuk Ghosts: kinship, the unhaunting of Newfoundland and settler colonial futures'

Julia Laite, Birkbeck University of London, 'Reframing Beothuk Histories: Re-narrating the life of Shanawdithit and the colonial history of Newfoundland'

Suzanne Owen, Leeds Trinity University, 'The past in the present in Newfoundland'

15.30-17.00

Session 7.2 International Orders: Past and Present

Wayne Hunt, Mount Allison University, 'Power Politics and The Weaponization of The Working Class: The Dynamics at Work Behind Trudeau's Surprise Dinner with Donald Trump at Mar-A-Lago on 29 November 2024'

Mark Williams and Anna Toderas, Vancouver Island University and University of British Columbia, 'Canada and the Shattering of World Order'

Stephen McBride, McMaster University, 'Trade and Trump 2.0: Challenges to Canadian Strategy'

Daniel Guedes, York University, 'Not so nice Canada: Canadian sub-imperialism in Central America'

Paula Hastings, University of Toronto, 'The Eyes of the World are on Vancouver: The Panama Canal and Shifting Oceanic Narratives in Canada'*(tbc)

15.30-17.00

Session 7.3 Literature 7: Coloniality

Denisa Krásná, Masaryk University, 'Chosen People, Chosen Species: Decolonizing Exceptionalism in The Marrow Thieves'

Shelly Hulan, University of Waterloo, 'Raspberries of Discord: Colonial Ingratitude in Two Early Canadian Novels'

Rūta Šlapkauskaitė, Vilnius University, 'This Thing of the Darkness: Petro-memory and Kinship Time in David Hubert's Oil People'

Jose Romaris, National University of Distance Education (UNED), Spain, 'Murder and Resurrection of Ganymede: The Impact of Colonialism on Two-Spirit/Queer Representations in the Literature of Canadian Indigenous Nations'

15.30-17.00

Session 7.4 Québec and French Canada Panel 3: Rights and Citizenship

Christina Keppie, Western Washington University, 'Acadians of Maine and Their Complex Relationship with the Congrès mondial acadien'

Lorraine O'Donnell, Concordia University, 'Resources on English-speaking Québec: A Field Map'

Patrick Donovan, Concordia University, 'The Shifting Complexity of Identity in English-Speaking Québec, from the 19th century to today'

Janice Denoncourt, Nottingham Trent University, 'Challenging Financial Opacity: Corporate Transparency Obligation in Québec and Canada'

15.30-17.00

Session 7.5 Governance and Political Institutions: The Canadian Federal Election, 2025

Patrick Holdich, University College London, and colleagues